

Friends of Music at St. Catherine's presents 2017-2018 Concert Series

The Charlestons

Friday, November 10 at 7:30 p.m.

The Charlestons is a group of four men from, yes, Charleston-- the premiere a cappella quartet in the Low Country. Formed in 2014 and having found each other within the St. John's Lutheran Church, Charleston, congregation, you might think that The Charlestons came together through divine intervention. The group, Todd Monsell (bass), Brink Norton (tenor), William Purcell and Stephen Spaulding (baritones), sings music across multiple genres, all unplugged and without accompaniment. Look them up on YouTube!

The Summit Trio

Sunday, January 14 at 4 p.m.

The Summit Trio is made up of three musicians on the faculty at Kennesaw State University: Robert Henry, piano; Helen Kim, violin; and Charae Krueger, cello. Robert Henry is an internationally distinguished pianist, winning universal acclaim as orchestral soloist, recitalist, accompanist, and chamber musician. Helen Kim made her orchestral debut with the Calgary Philharmonic at the age of six, and has gone on to become a respected and sought-after artist. Charae Krueger is Principal Cellist for the Atlanta Opera and Atlanta Ballet Orchestras. Watch live online August 28, 8:00 p.m., at musicKSU.com.

Feiner Musicke

Sunday, March 4 at 4:00 p.m.

Ellen Heinicke Foster, harp, and Mel Foster, Tenor. Feiner Musicke is a husband and wife duo committed to the performance, publication and recording of music for voice and harp. Because the repertoire is limited, they have transcribed many pieces originally written for piano and voice. Several of these transcriptions can be heard on their first recording, Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal. They have also published transcriptions of three songs by Claude Debussy. Learn more at feinermusicke.com.

The Schola Cantorum of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church

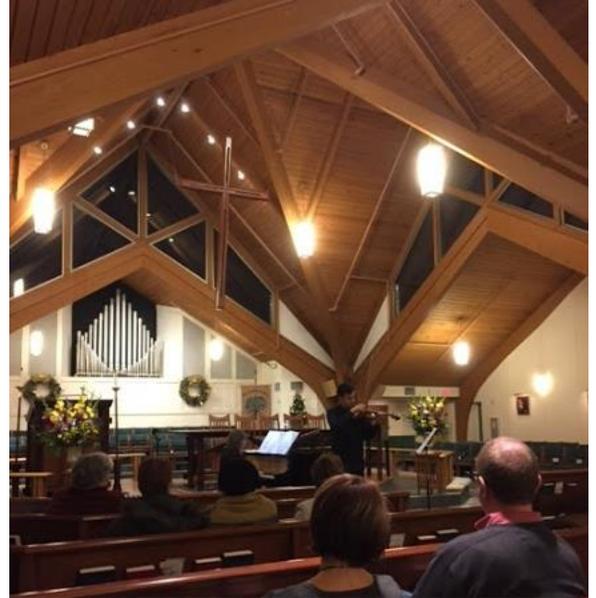

Saturday, April 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Music for Compline: Guide Us Waking and Guard us Sleeping
Music for the end of the day from the 15th to the 21st century
Shannon Gallier, conductor

The Schola Cantorum sings a completely acapella repertoire in the context of twice-monthly Compline. They will perform a selection of pieces sung at Compline and give instruction about the nature of the service. Learn more at stbartsatlanta.org/music/choirs.

Please, join us for our 2017-2018 free concert series, open to the public with no tickets needed. A freewill offering will be taken. All concerts are open seating and are held in the beautiful sanctuary of St. Catherine's Episcopal Church, distinguished for its acoustics. St. Catherine's is located at 571 Holt Rd., Marietta, GA 30068.

Friends of Music at St. Catherine's

Now in its sixth year, the Concert Series is committed to providing high quality chamber and solo concerts, instrumental and voice, in the beauty of our church. Two of the series' favorite components are the "living footnotes", when performers share their thoughts about the music with the audience, and the post-concert reception, where the audience has an opportunity to meet the artists.

Interested in becoming a Friend of Music at St. Catherine's?

St. Catherine's Concert Series is made possible by the generous contributions of music lovers like you. Become a Friend of Music at St. Catherine's and help enhance the musical and spiritual life of the whole community.
