The people of St. Catherine's seek to share in the love that Jesus Christ has for us and the world by welcoming, accepting, nurturing, and serving all people through the power of the Holy Spirit.

We Welcome You!

Memorial Service

Sunday, November 4
6 PM

Everyone in the congregation is invited to join us at our Holy Eucharist and Memorial Service in support of those in our parish who have lost friends and loved ones since our spring celebration. A reception follows the service. If you would like a loved one included in this service, please send your information to Karen Manno at karen@stcatherines.org by Oct. 26.

Reception help needed

We need donations of finger food items and help with setup and clean up for the reception after the service. Please sign up on the Opportunities for Ministry in your bulletin or contact the office.

Halloween WNL

October 31, 5:45-7pm

Come to a special Dinner and Halloween Party at St. Cat's! We will be roasting hot dogs and making s'mores, having fun games with prizes for all ages, and a Costume Contest! We will start dinner at 5:45 and the costume contest will begin at 6:30pm. We will be done at 7pm so that you have plenty of time to get home to trick-or-treat! Dinner will be by donation only but please sign up in the Opportunities for Ministry in your bulletin so that we know you are coming.

Stewardship Celebration Gatherings continue

"Blooming While Sowing New Seeds," our 2008 Stewardship theme, aims to capture the sense of supporting the present as we assure the future of St. Catherine's. There is nothing more important to us at this time in our community's life than the call to take time to reflect on our abundant resources and to sow new seeds so that this congregation will continue to bloom for years to come.

If you were not able to attend our first Celebration Dinner on October 7, we ask that you take a moment to look at your calendar and sign up for one of our two other gatherings (both in the Parish Hall):

- Sunday, October 21 - 12:30 PM (Lunch)
- Saturday, October 27 - 6-8 PM (Dinner)

These will be times of fellowship and conversation about God's many blessings, a time to reflect with one another, and a time to receive our stewardship materials. These will not be times of solicitation.

Won't you come and be a part of this important conversation? You can let us know you plan to attend by sending an email to Ginny Lummus (gslummus@gmail.com). We look forward to your presence and your voice.

Stewardship Ingathering

Habitat House Dedication

Nov. 11, 2 PM

Thanks to the efforts of all, our Habitat house is nearly complete. Please join us for the dedication of the new home on Sunday, November 11, at 2 PM. View new photos of the building project on our website at www.StCatherines.org!

Blood Drive

Monday, Nov. 12
2:30- 7:30 PM

The Red Cross is coming to St. Catherine's to accept all types of blood from people age 16 and older. Give the gift of life! Watch for signup sheets in the church lobby.

Holy Baptism

Next Date: Jan. 6

Please check with the office for more information and to request the customary booklet about Holy Baptism.

Will we ever stop talking about Stewardship?

This question or some form of it is always heard in the hallways of churches during the Stewardship season. We are not unique in this regard. And true to the norm, it was reported that this question was heard this past Sunday. It got me thinking.

One of the things I believe about myself is that all that I have and all that I am comes from God. After all God created me, gave me loving parents, gave me the ability to learn and to excel in my career, was with me and opened my eyes to discover life-giving love through Joan, gave us two wonderful children, gave each of us the ability to work hard and earn enough money to keep a roof over our heads, a couple cars in the driveway, a retirement fund, and God gave me my vocation which eventually led me to be with a wonderful group of Christians at St. Catherine's. I don't think I will ever stop talking about stewardship because no matter where I turn I am confronted with a life from God that can only elicit thanks giving. And I believe this awareness asks me to give as generously as God has given to me not from what is left over in my life but from the first fruits; the "good stuff" of my life.

In the world today we are talking about the price of oil—it's a stewardship conversation. In the world today we are talking about the eventual consumption of many of our natural resources—it's a stewardship conversation. In the Atlanta metro area we are talking about drought and water restrictions—it's a stewardship conversation. In the world today we are talking about global warming (and whatever you believe or don't believe)—it's a stewardship conversation. In our country today we are talking about the future of the United States and who best to lead us into that future—it's a stewardship conversation. In our church we are talking about being responsible users of resources such as plastic, paper, etc.—it's a stewardship conversation. Your Vestry adopted a plan to establish a planned giving program to be known as The Great Oak Endowment—it's a stewardship conversation. And, yes, in our church this month and next we are talking about our vision for the future and dreams we have for ministry which takes all of our resources time, talent, and treasure to accomplish—it's a stewardship conversation.

To me, whether we are considering our personal lives, our lives within the community, or the world in which we live, we are engaged in conversations about the way we care for what God has given us. To my thinking and speaking for myself, I've done a mediocre job of engaging that conversation. Until I can do a better job I intend to keep talking about stewardship.

On Stewardship

Reflection on John 21 by Gina Baumann

Throwing our nets! Wow, the last chapter of the Gospels and the beginnings of the church. The disciples have returned to fishing, something they know and are comfortable with. Jesus has come and shown himself for the third time since his death and yet the disciples still don't recognize him on the shore. He throws a fishing miracle in there and invites them to a meal—the breaking of the bread, and then they know Jesus. I'm not real adept at interpreting scripture, but I feel there is an underlying theme—trust. A trust in Christ to provide for us and Christ's trust in us that we will have faith in him and spread the Good News.

Jesus puts the question to Simon Peter three times, basically saying "Do you love me enough to keep it going?" and "Will you give your life to me, Christianity?" Even though Peter doesn't seem to get it and gets caught up in jealousy and comparison with John, something obviously sets in. Here we are 2000 plus years later in a spiritual community I couldn't live without.

So, to keep it thriving and to give back to God, we are asked to put our faith into action, to trust that Christ will provide for us and that we will provide for the Church through our commitment of time, talent and treasure. Like the disciples, Jesus wants us to push ourselves, throw our nets out of our comfort zone, to do the things that need to be done—not just the things we like. So, this stewardship season, I will take a real hard look at where to throw my net for fish and should Jesus come up to me today and say,

"Gina, have you put your trust in me and fed my lambs?" I pray I will answer with a resounding—"Yes, Lord!"

WELCOME

Please welcome more new families to our family at St. Catherine's. Look for their nametags and let them know how happy we are that they have become part of our community.

James and JoAnn Sampson – The Sampsons live in Cherokee Crossing subdivision with their favorite cocker spaniel. JoAnn is a teacher; James is in commercial property. They have grown children and one granddaughter.

Bill and Beth Lee – The Lees have lived in Marietta for 20 years, but are new to St. Cat's and are especially drawn to the liturgy of our church. They have three adult children – Hannah, Will, and Davis who is 17. Bill is already involved in Habitat. The Lees live in Heritage Farms subdivision near Lassiter High School.

Tim and Therese Braman – Their son, Walter, is a student at Walton, and Amanda, age 4, is in St. Catherine's preschool. Therese is a native Georgian and Tim is from Florida. The Bramans live in Ashebrook.

Tanya and Richard Bowers-Dean – The Bowers-Deans live in Magnolia Apartments in Roswell. Daughter Alysia, 12, is a student at Fulton Science Academy and Celia, 10, is at Crabapple Elementary. Both are native Georgians. Alysia is in Rite 13 and Celia in Catechesis.

Julie Thomasun – Julie lives in the Salem Woods subdivision with her dog, Ginger. She grew up in Snellville and is a graduate of Georgia State in psychology. Julie enjoys tennis and is interested in outreach.

Michael and Jeanette Harrison – Michael and Michelle live in Dunmovin. Daughter Megan, 13, is in 8th grade at Palmer; Zachary, 12, is also at Palmer; Andrew, 4, is in Pre-K; and, Ryan, 2, hangs out at home with Mom. Michael was born in Viet Nam and moved here when he was 6. Michelle has been in Atlanta most of her life.

Clint and Cathy Donley – Clint and Cathy are originally from Illinois and now live in Weatherstone with Erica, 5, who attends Sedalia Park and Egan, 3, at Faith Lutheran. Both children are in Catechesis and are really enjoying it. Clint and Cathy attend the adult class on comparative religions taught by Ginny Acocella.

Greg and Christine Daniel – The Daniels moved to Georgia over a year ago from New Jersey. Their daughter, Jane, 4, is a student at St. Catherine's PreSchool. Son Luke, 16 months, was baptized here on October 14.

Ministry Teams Meeting

Tuesday, Nov. 6, 7:00 PM

All leaders and members of St. Catherine's ministry teams and committees, please mark your calendar and be sure to be there. Anyone who is interested in the ministry work at our church is welcome to attend.

Become a Steven Minister

Stephen Ministry is looking for a few men and women who want to make a difference in someone's life by simply showing up, listening, and caring. A Stephen Minister undertakes 50 hours of training to equip him or her to provide one-on-one medium to long-term care for people dealing with a difficult time in their lives. For information please speak to any of the Stephen leaders or the clergy.

Assistant Rector Search Update

A search committee is working with Father Jim as we invite our next Assistant Rector to join our clergy team. We are beginning to receive resumes from clergy throughout the United States expressing interest. The committee will narrow the list of candidates and conduct phone interviews over the next few weeks. We hope to make a call to a candidate by shortly after the new year.

The search committee is Susan Bayless, Stan Dickson, Steve Diffley, Bill Krupp, Jennifer Massey, and Gail McGill. If you have any questions or would like to discuss your hopes for our assistant rector, please contact any one of them

Young Family activities coming up

- Donuts With Dads! — Saturday, Oct. 27, 9-10 AM at Krispy Kreme by the Big Chicken. Kids, bring your dads to the Krispy Kreme at 299 Cobb Parkway, Marietta 30062, NOT THE PARISH HALL. Come for donuts, coffee and orange juice. Plan to head to the East Cobb Park afterwards to let the kids run off the sugar! Let us know you are coming by contacting stcatsyoungfamilies@hotmail.com or call 770-579-0657.

- Operation Christmas Child — Make a child's Christmas special: Operation Christmas Child brings joy and hope to children in desperate situations through gift-filled shoe boxes and the news of God's love. This is a great opportunity for families of all ages to pack one or more shoe boxes with gifts to be distributed to needy children worldwide. Young Families Ministry will host an ingathering on Sunday, Nov. 11, in the foyer. You can bring already assembled shoeboxes then

St. Cat's Preschool Silent Auction

November 11-16

It is time for the annual Preschool Silent Auction! The auction raises funds to enhance our facility and update our curriculum. We will kick off the event on Sunday, Nov. 11, 10:00-11:15 AM, be sure to see the wonderful items available and enter your bids. The auction will be open during preschool hours November 12-16, concluding at noon on the 16th.

Your support in donating goods or services and bidding on items is greatly appreciated! Last year church members helped make our auction a huge success. To donate items please contact Karolyn Olliffe at 770-645-8164, or pick up a donation form outside the preschool office. Thank you for your support!

or drop them off anytime the week of November 4-11. Brochures are available in the foyer. Please complete the accompanying form in the brochure and drop off your check for $7 along with your box. We want to beat last year's total of 75 boxes, so we hope you'll support Operation Christmas Child this year. Questions? Contact Jennifer Gale, 770-579-0657 or Lisa Spessard at Inspessard@yahoo.com.

- Wine Tasting — Make plans now to attend an adult-only Wine Tasting on Sunday, November 18, at the home of Dave and Stephanie Yucius. We'll have a social hour from 7 to 8 PM with the wine-tasting program following from 8 to 10 PM. The theme is "ABCs of Wine – Anything but Chardonnay and Cabernet." Bob Cochran, wine steward at Sherlock's, will introduce us to some tasty alternatives to the wine you usually order. Cost is $10 per person and we're asking each couple to bring an appetizer to share (for 6-8 people) and BYOG (bring your own tasting glasses). Limited space so RSVP as soon as you can. Final RSVP date is November 12 – please respond to Lisa Spessard at Inspessard@yahoo.com or stcatsyoungfamilies@hotmail.com.

Holiday Grief Group Begins

Remembering our loved ones over the holidays... This group offers a safe place to share stories of loved ones who are no longer with us as we venture into Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. The group will meet six Sundays: November 11 and 18, December 2 and 9, January 6 and 13. Please join us each date immediately following the 11:15 service in the Parlor. Lunch will be provided. Group will be led by Kathy Holman and Gail McGill.

To your health:

Health checks at church — Our Congregational Nurses will be at church on Sunday, Oct. 21, to check blood pressures, and will also check blood sugars and cholesterol if the person has had nothing to eat or drink that morning.

Flu shots will be available at church Sundays beginning November 10 to those who would like one. We expect the cost to be about the same as last year. As always, Medicare will be accepted.

Shingles vaccine — Anyone who has had chicken pox is susceptible to shingles, a very painful disease. A shingles vaccine is has recently been developed, consider asking your doctor about it.

Advent at St. Catherine's

Advent is a few weeks away, but we want you to have some dates to put on your calendar as you plan ahead to this very special time of preparation:

- November 25 (Last Sunday of Pentecost) — Intergenerational Event: making family Advent wreaths, during Church School; Advent reflection material for all ages
- November 27 — Advent Eucharist & Study, 7:00-8:00 am, continues Dec. 4, 11, & 18
- Nov. 29-Dec. 2 — Advent Retreat, north Georgia mountains
- December 2 (Advent 1) — A Musical Walk through Advent presented by St. Catherine's Adult Choir, during Church School
- December 8 — Secret Santa Workshop sponsored by our Youth
- December 9 (Advent 2) — St. Nicholas Celebration, during Church School
- December 15 — Seasonal Sabbath, 9:00 am - 12 noon in the Sanctuary
- December 16 (Advent 3) — Christmas Pageant
- December 23 (Advent 4) — Hanging of the Greens, 5:00-8:00 pm

Writers Wanted!

A special tradition at St. Catherine's is our annual booklet of meditations on the season of Advent and Christmas written by our own parishioners, staff, and clergy. If you would like to write a brief (1 or 2 paragraphs) meditation on a piece of Scripture, please sign up on the Opportunities For Ministry in your bulletin or contact Karen Manno at karenATstcatherines.org. We will be in touch with your assignment. Reflections will be due by Sunday, Nov. 18. We thank you for participating in this important spiritual work.

Seasonal Donations

Each year we invite the congregation to donate money towards offsetting the cost of decorating the church for Christmas. You will see the familiar brown envelopes appear in the pews on the Sunday after Thanksgiving. This year we will add to our request the cost of some very special music for Christmas Eve. This is a way to give thanks for special blessings or to remember a loved one at this special time of year. We remind you to insert your donation in the envelope and to let us know (in or on the envelope) your name and who you want your gift to be remembered in thanksgiving or memory of, to be included in our Christmas bulletins.

Advent Retreat

"If as Herod we fill our lives with things and again with things. If we consider ourselves so unimportant that we must fill every moment of our lives with action. When will we have time to make the long slow journey across the desert as did the Magi? Or sit and watch the stars as did the shepherds? Or brood over the coming of the child as did Mary? For each one of us there is a desert to travel, a star to discover, and a being within ourselves to bring to life."

— Michael Podesta

Does it seem that you never have enough time? That you go faster and faster, but your "to do list" gets longer and longer? Is the quiet voice of God lost in the noise and hurry? Come away with us for an Advent Retreat in the mountains of north Georgia, where we'll unwind and slow down before the holiday season. Our retreat leader, Sharon Parisi, will use the "Liturgy of Hours" to help us consider our relationship to time, and whether there might be some ways to increase our awareness of the presence of God throughout all seasons of our lives.

The retreat is Nov. 30-Dec. 2 at the Center for New Beginnings in Dahlonega. Reserve now with a $100 deposit, final payment due November 25. Total cost will be $230 per person, double occupancy, includes two nights lodging and all meals. Check the Opportunities for Ministry in your bulletin or contact Father Jim, or Sharon Parisi, parisiATbellsouth.net.

Letters

Hey [St. Catherine's],

Thank you so much for the book scholarship! It helped tremendously! This church means the world to me and I can't imagine what my life would be like if y'all weren't in it! Hope the church is doing well! I love and miss you guys very much!

*Always,
Erin Hurley*

St. Cat's,

Thank you so much for the birthday card and prayer! I loved it. Also, thank for all of your support over the past year, it has meant a lot. Praying for you all.

*Love,
Caty Kilgore*

To my wonderful Church Family at St. Catherine's,

First of all I want to thank Kathy for being with Mick and me before my surgery. It really was nice to have you there especially after our trip to The Borderlands.

Then I want to thank Father Jim for showing up on my second hospitalization. I was so bummed out and it really was nice to have you there. I really did not plan a second trip to the hospital just so you had to come see me there but it was a great laugh for me on a day when I really needed one. John and Liz Rea, thank you for the visit and the wonderful meal you cooked for Mick and me. It was great company and it really made me forget myself for the evening and enjoy your visit. Great idea to come and eat with us! Ron and Arlyn were a wonderful surprise bringing us the altar flowers. They cheered me up for a week or more. Amelia with her huge balloon that she brought to me on my second visit to the hospital was great! It is still in my kitchen tied to a chair scaring my birds if they get too close to it! It definitely reminds me of all the love and caring that comes my way. All the cards, prayers, and well wishes are much appreciated, especially the one from my J2A class. It was too funny. But yes I did feel like carp! No kidding, a great big fish on the front of the card! Laughs are healing so thanks a bunch.

Complications are no fun but I am trying to heal and even though I look and feel great I am trying to take care of myself. That is hard for me to do cause I have a tendency to be a go-getter and do too much. Please continue to pray that my poor traumatized bladder will heal and that all will be well soon.

As usual, St. Catherine's comes through with flying colors and as I heal I cannot tell you what you mean to Mick and me.

*Love and Hugs,
Sallie Bowes*

Dear St. Catherine's,

We sometimes read in The Wheel letters of gratitude and thank you notes from other members who had been ill. You may have wondered if those notes could really be so true. Are people that grateful? Well, they are.

Take it from me. Those visits, cards, notes, prayers plus the Holy Eucharist that I have received in the hospital made my time there a bit more tolerable and hopeful, that I feel my complete recovery is right around the corner. June 5, I was sent to Kennestone for gall bladder surgery. Here's where cards, visitors, altar flowers and Holy Communion with Jim, Kathy, Gail, Tom, Marion, and Nancy were very welcome. I ... went back to the hospital. Word got around and I received more visitors, phone calls, cards, plus Eucharist. I was released July 3 and the people brought delicious meals to our home. ...All this reminded me of my friends at St. Catherine's who sent their good wishes, and prayers.

Yes, folks! It's really true! I'll be looking around the corner next. Thank you all for your loving kindness and generosity.

*Your sister in Christ,
Eileen Motter*

P.S. More thank yous are in order after another trip to Kennestone: Another meal and more altar flowers, and from the DOK two gorgeous shawls. What a treat! Eileen

Dear Wheel Editor:

Saw the pictures of the Blessing of the Animals. Not impressed. Too many dogs! Yuck.

Toby Bowden (family feline)

Note from Toby's people: Sad to say, but a feline "exorcism" might be needed before a blessing. :-) (Pictures were great.)

*Love,
Bill & Martha Bowden*

[Ed. note: We regret that Toby was not delighted by the photos but we were! See the link on our website at www.StCatherines.org]

To Our St. Catherine's Family,

Having just been a member of St. Cat's for less than 2 years, I cannot tell you how wonderful you are! The cars, flowers and prayers after my father passed away were comforting. We thank God for our church family! Thanks again to everyone.

*The Michael Family
Martin, Katja, Karoline and Mikey*

Youth

“the gods aren’t angry”

Rob Bell, creator of the NOOMA video series (subject of Ash Gale’s Church School class), will be in Atlanta Nov. 19 as part of his “the gods aren’t angry” tour. Part anthropology, part history, part deconstruction — this is new material that Rob hasn’t taught before, exploring how humans invented religion to make themselves feel better. Location is The Tabernacle, 152 Luckie Street, Atlanta. Sign up for tickets on the Opportunities For Ministry in your bulletin or contact the office by Nov. 4.

Ice Maker Available

The free-standing Kenmore ice maker that was in the staff kitchen is available free to anyone who wants it. It is not running but is repairable. The unit is currently sitting on the deck outside the staff offices. If you want it simply take it. If it is not gone by Monday, October 29, we’ll dispose of it.

- Youth House project begins!

Construction of our new Youth House will be a building project in the style of Habitat For Humanity. Sessions will be on Saturdays, watch for announcements! Help with construction, and with food for the workers. Sign up is coming in the foyer or on the Opportunities for Ministry in your bulletin. Food volunteers can also call Larry or Meg Boyd at 770.977.9362.

- Corn Maze - October 21

The youth trip to Uncle Shuck’s Corn Maze is Sunday, October 21, 12:30-4:30 pm. It’s not too late to sign up. Call or e-mail Amelia by Saturday evening if you would like to go!

- Parents Meeting - October 28

There will be a meeting for the parents of all youth in the Rite-13, J2A, and YA classes on Sunday, October 28th at 7pm in the Parish Hall. We will be planning for the upcoming Dinner, Dance, and Auction in January and assigning committees. Please plan to attend. Thanks!

- Fall Retreat Cancelled

Attention! We are sad to announce that the Fall Youth Retreat has been cancelled due to lack of participation. If you signed up and paid you can pick up your checks from Amelia. We will try to reschedule the retreat for sometime during the spring. Thanks in advance for understanding. If you have questions or concerns please contact Amelia.

- Happening

Happening forms for adult candidates or youth in grades 10-12 are on Amelia’s bulletin board. Sign up for the next Happening, November 16-18 at Camp Mikell.

- Pumpkin Carving - October 24

Come to WNL on October 24th for PUMPKIN CARVING!!! Get ready for Halloween by carving pumpkins with the youth group! Bring your creativity and a smile!

Leaving for the National Acolyte Festival — see more photos on display in the church lobby

Gobble Jog

Time for the 5th Annual Gobble Jog on Thanksgiving Day to benefit MUST Ministries! To participate on the St. Cat’s team contact Carol Eskew, cm Luke@ATMindspring.com or Nadine Pope, ronaza@ATMindspring.com. For complete details visit www.GobbleJog.org.

- Not a runner? Busy cooking your own Thanksgiving feast? We have the perfect way to participate with no attendance required: be a Phantom Cook (register for just $25).

- For runners/walkers, we have 1K, 5K, 10K run/walk and the Tot Trot (for kids 5 and under). Teams eligible for $2 discount per person, members may participate in any race division.

Vestry Notes
