The annual Dinner Dance and Silent & Live Auction will be held in the Parish Hall and will include a gourmet meal served by our youth, a fun-filled evening of music and dancing, and an exciting live and silent auction. This annual event raises funds for the Youth Pilgrimage. Tickets are on now sale at church after services. The cost is single $40.00, couples $75.00. Reservations are required.

Auction items still needed

The youth are asking our parishioners for donations for our live and silent auction. In the past, we have had exciting items available such as vacation rentals, vintage wine, classes and lessons, gourmet-cooked dinners, antiques, collectibles, jewelry, gift certificates, pottery, tickets to sporting events, and much more. If you have suggestions, opportunities, or can assist our youth in helping make this event a success, please contact Amelia Snider at 770-971-2839 or Amelia AT stcatherines.org.

Please plan to participate — it is a wonderful way to support our youth program and have a great time as well. We look forward to seeing you there!

Gift Giving

Just before our St. Catherine's women left for Borderlands Retreat Center last June, a dear friend of mine asked to meet with me. At our meeting she gave me a traditional Native American gift of sweetgrass and tobacco. These sacred gifts came wrapped up in cloth squares which could later be used for prayer tie offerings. As she handed me this beautiful, aromatic gift, she said, "Remember that when our Native American brothers and sisters give something, it becomes entirely yours to do with what you will."

"What wonderful words," I thought to myself, "almost as good a gift as the sweetgrass." Then I began to think of my gift giving and how often I give something with expectations somehow attached to the gift. Will the recipient of my gift understand the real meaning of the gift? Will it be placed in some prominent place for all to see? Will they wear it often and perhaps let it become some kind of personal "trademark"?

Then I thought of the times I was disappointed to find that my gift had been set aside or admired briefly and then delegated to the bottom drawer or the shelf in the closet. I became aware that, for the most part, my "gifts"—my "gift giving" had strings attached.

Right now, I am reading a new book about Mother Teresa. It's called Come be My Light. In spite of the very bad and misleading press this book has gotten, I am profoundly touched with this story. You see, as a young girl, Sister Mary Teresa vowed to "never deny Jesus anything." She gave to God the gift of herself. She became God's gift to do with as He pleased—no strings attached. I thought about this as we moved through our Epiphany liturgy.

I thought about it again last Sunday as we celebrated the Baptism of our Lord. Jesus, God incarnate, entered the waters of the Jordan river to offer Himself as gift to the community—no strings attached.

Stewardship: 2008 budget approved

The Vestry approved our 2008 budget at the Vestry meeting on January 15. The $702,000 budget represents a 3% increase over the 2007 budget. The budget is primarily supported (90%) by your pledges for 2008. We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their commitment for 2008. The following is a summary of our results to date:

Year	Number	Dollars	change
2007	217	$605,367	-
2008	211	$634,388	+4.8%

There are still 11 pledges from 2007 outstanding for a total of $12,160. It is not too late to make your pledge to the mission and ministry of St. Catherine's for 2008. All you have to do is complete a pledge card and send it to the office or place it in the alms basin on Sunday.

We also want to take the opportunity to thank our Stewardship Team. John Garner, Ginny Lummus, and Phil Spessard worked very hard to present a Stewardship case that reflects the long term vision of a growing congregation. The result of their effort speaks for itself. They have committed as well to inviting us into a year round focus on stewardship and we'll look forward to hearing from them in the coming weeks.

Help St. George's during Mardi Gras!

Each year St. George's, New Orleans raise money during Mardi Gras by offering meals to the public. Funds go to their Dragon Café ministry which provides meals every week to needy people in the neighborhood. Our trip to assist St. George's leaves Jan. 31 and returns on Tuesday, Feb. 5, in time for our own Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper. Most of this time will be helping out in the kitchen, working alongside St. George's parishioners plus groups from other partner parishes. You will have the opportunity to watch the parades and collect beads. For more information or to sign up, please fill out the Opportunity for Ministry in your Sunday bulletin or contact Sue or Al Jones.

Assistant Rector Search News

The search for our new Assistant Rector is nearly complete. We have reviewed many resumes, interviewed candidates, visited churches and completed phone interviews and reference checks. We are satisfied that we are in the last final details that will allow us to make a call to a person who will join us as a member of our staff and clergy team. We want to thank everyone for their patience and for their prayers. We have felt your prayers and been sustained by them as we've discerned God's call to us as a congregation. We can only hope that our new Assistant will feel the same call.

An Invitation to a Holy Lent

Ash Wednesday, Feb. 6

Holy Eucharist + Imposition of Ashes at 7:00 am, 12:00 noon, 7:30 pm

On Ash Wednesday we are signed with the outward sign of our humble beginnings and common end. The priest invites all to the observance of holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. After our period of silence before the Lord, our maker and redeemer, the priest puts ashes on our foreheads as we take responsibility for this living flesh, notice everything around us, the possessions we hold valuable, the persons we love and know that all will one day turn to dust.

Lenten Morning Eucharist and Study

Our Tuesday morning Lenten Eucharist and Study will begin on February 12 at 7:00 am. We meet for a quiet and brief Eucharist followed by a study. We're done by 8:00 and on to the day's demands. For those who have participated in this time over the years we have found it to be special, a time we look forward to as an opportunity to respond to the invitation to a holy Lent. We hope you will join us.

Our study will be Psalm Meditations for the Church Year. Each week we will reflect on the Psalm appointed for the following Sunday. We will attempt to discover how the Psalm has become an integral part of our worship and how many traditions have interpreted them. Many of our hymns, choral pieces, and even contemporary music is based on the richness of the Psalms, and we will bring those resources to bear.

You will find a study booklet available on our resource table beginning Ash Wednesday. In the meantime mark your calendars (February 12, 19, 26, March 4, 11, and 18) and set your alarm.

Wednesday Evening Lenten Series:

Experiencing Obedience As Grace

St. Catherine's is pleased to announce a Lenten Speaker Series for adults Wednesday evenings, February 13 through March 12. Having moved through the beauty and excitement of anticipating the birth of Love into a broken world; the joy of celebrating the arrival of Light into our darkness; the awe and wonder of witnessing God's activity in the ordinary, we now find ourselves moving into the richness of Lent. Lent's invitation is to a deeper, fuller, more intimate relationship with the Divine through growing awareness of God's presence in and around us.

Join us on Wednesday nights as we gather to consider what it means to be obedient. How might we experience obedience as grace? What are the blessings of obedience? How does obedience draw us to a closer, more intimate relationship with the Living God?

Our speakers this year will be

- The Right Rev. J. Neil Alexander
- Dr. Patricia Kennington
- The Rev. George Alexander
- The Rev. Patricia Templeton
- Mr. Robert Townes

Our evenings together will begin with dinner at 6:00 and end with a Taizé service at 7:30. For information, contact Father Jim.

Lenten Resources

You will find many resources on the table in our lobby for your whole family beginning Sunday, Feb. 18.

Our annual booklet of reflections on the season of Lent, written by our own St. Catherine's parishioners, will be available starting on Ash Wednesday. The Reflection of the Day (and the whole booklet) will also be available on our website, be sure to check all through Lent and Holy Week at www.stcatherines.org.

LETTERS

Dear Friends In Christ,

"Hope when I needed it the most." That's how one of our residents described what coming to The Extension meant to him. And that's what your gift will mean to the residents of our women's program.

[Ed. Note: The Extension was the recipient of our Christmas 2007 offering.]

We have a long way to go yet, but we're on our way to meeting our goal of beginning construction in the spring. Thank you for being one of the early donors to this project and for helping turn this dream into a reality. Because of your generosity, homeless, addicted women will soon get the help they so desperately need. If you would like to tour the new facility, please give us a call to set up a time.

Liturgies during Lent

The Great Litany

Feb. 10, 8:45 & 11:15 services

On the first Sunday of Lent we sing the Great Litany. The Great Litany is an intercessory prayer including various petitions sung by the priests, with fixed responses by the congregation. It was used as early as the fifth century in Rome. It was led by a deacon, with the collects led by a bishop or priest. The Litany was the first English language rite prepared by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and first published in 1544. Its use in church processions was ordered by Henry VIII when England was at war with Scotland and France. It was printed as an appendix to the Eucharist in the 1549 Book of Common Prayer (BCP). The 1979 BCP titled it "The Great Litany," distinguishing it from other litanies in the Prayer Book. The Great Litany may be said or sung. The officiant and people may kneel or stand, or it may be done in procession.

Rite I/Rite 2 in Lent

Lent 2008 will introduce some liturgical changes within our Sunday worship. These changes will primarily center around the Eucharistic Liturgy and the language and prayers we use each week.

Let's talk about our language. During Lent the 7:30 and 11:15 worship will use Rite I rather than Rite II. The easiest distinction we might draw between the two is that Rite I uses traditional language (thee, thou, thy, etc) versus Rite II which uses contemporary language (he, you, our, etc.). The traditional language rites are known as Rite 1, and the contemporary language rites are known as Rite 2. The Rite 1 liturgies reflect the language and piety of the Elizabethan era and the first Book of Common Prayer (BCP), although the structure of these liturgies also reflects the influence of modern liturgical scholarship. The Rite 2 liturgies reflect more fully the influence of the liturgical movement and contemporary theology. Rite 2 liturgies tend to reflect greater sensitivity for inclusive language issues.

The music we will use will follow the same structure. The Hymnal 1982 provides service music settings that are designated for Rite 1 and Rite 2 services. There is nothing to suggest that a Rite I liturgy is more "holy" than a Rite II liturgy, it is just a matter of preference and/or a desire to reflect the rich heritage and diversity of the BCP. It is for this reason that we'll use Rite I at 7:30 and 11:15 am during Lent.

Let's now talk about our prayers. In both Rite I and Rite II we have a selection of Eucharistic Prayers that we may use, labeled Prayers I and II in Rite I, and Prayers A, B, C, and D in Rite II. At 7:30 and 11:15 we will use Eucharistic Prayer I at both services. This is an ancient prayer of the church finding its shape in the earliest (4th century) celebrations of the Eucharist. The text of this prayer in our current BCP is from the Scottish rite dating from the 17th century. While the language has changed some in its current form, this prayer is in the same basic form as on the day Samuel Seabury agreed to bring it to the American prayer book as the "price" he paid to be consecrated bishop in Scotland. When we pray it we can rejoice in its ancient words and our continued links to the body of Christ throughout the centuries.

During our 8:45 am service we'll use Rite II, Prayer C. Like many of the ancient Eastern churches' prayers, Prayer C contains much congregational response which is largely words from Scripture. The prayer was drafted for the 1979 BCP by Capt. Howard E. Galley. It is often nicknamed the "Star Wars" prayer because of its rich creation imagery. In addition this prayer reminds us that we do not come to the table week in and out "for solace only" but that we come to be strengthened for service in Jesus' name. It reminds us that we do not come "for pardon only" but to be renewed and sent back out into the work to do ministry. The prayer reminds us of the Old Testament drama of God's continuing effort to draw His people back to Himself. The recital of salvation history reaches its climax in the proclamation of the incarnation and atonement.

We hope in making these changes during Lent you will be introduced to the rich diversity of our liturgy and that you will find some new dimension of your faith enriched.

Exploring Our Creative Spirit

Many thanks to the wonderful group who participated in our first Exploring our Creative Spirit day at St. Catherine's. When I asked Ginny Acocella and Jason Snape to take part in this, both asked me the question, "What do you want for people to take away from this day?" The real answer to this question is, "That's up to God." My answer to that question was that I wanted people to walk away with some sense of God's image in themselves. I hope that we will all continue to explore and to discover "God within".

Once again, my thanks to those who came to play and discover on Saturday. Special thanks to Mel Paris, John Brooks, Jason Snape, and Ginny Acocella for being good sports and willing playmates.

Faithfully yours, Deacon Kathy+

Below, you can read how one of the participants, John Brooks—who facilitated the writing group—responded to Exploring our Creative Spirit. "As I reflected on the creation story," said John, "one of the concepts that had a particularly strong impact on me was the idea that humans were made in the image of God. I decided I would respond to that by writing a dialogue between God and myself." Here it is:

Setting: A room with two chairs.
God and John are the only ones present.

John: May I call you Father?

God: Of course.

John; Dad?

God: If you want.

John: I love you, you know.

God: I love you too, John.

John: I appreciate your time.

God: I'm glad to give it to you.

John: May I ask you anything?

God: Anything you want.

John: You won't get mad?

God: No, I promise I won't.

John About this being created in your image thing.

God: Yes?

John: I don't understand it.

God. What do you want to know?

John: I thought once I saw you, I'd understand.

God: Ask away.

John: You're male.

God: For you, I am.

John: How about for my wife?

God: This is between you and me.

John: Do you have a hairy chest?

God: I do.

John: Is your chest hair gray?

God: Just like yours.

John: Is your second toe bigger than your big toe?

God. Yes.

John: Are you circumcised?

God: That's a little personal isn't it?

John: You said I could ask anything.

God: Yes, for you I am circumcised.

John: Hmm. Is there a hidden meaning in that response?

God: Not really.

John: So if someone else were to ask you the same question, you might give a different answer?

God: Yes.

John: Do you have to cut your toenails?

God: No.

John; Do you floss?

God: No.

John: Ever get a headache?

God: Frequently.

John: You're very handsome, Father.

God: So are you, John.

John: Am I a chip off the old block?

God: You could say that, son. You could say that.

John: What do you want from me, God?

God: Your love.

John: Yes, I know, but what do you really want?

God: That's all I really want.

John: Well then, exactly how do I love you?

God: I think you know that.

John: Obey you?

God: That's one way.

John: You really want me to walk the line, huh?

God: It would be in your best interest, yes.

John: Are we talking the Ten Commandments?

God: Yes.

LETTERS

Dear St. Catherine's,

My family joins me in deep appreciation for all the attention I received from you prior to and since my recent surgery. Your phone calls, cards and prayers have all contributed to my successful surgery, repaid recovery and my journey through chemotherapy as I return to perfect health.

We have been constantly reminded how blessed we are to have the friendships and love from our St. Catherine's family. How blessed we are to have been a part of this Parish family for so many years.

Love,
Susan Martin

Dialog

John: All of them?

God: All ten.

John: And then, the one about loving you with all our heart, mind and soul, and loving our neighbors as ourselves?

God: You got it, son.

John: Those are the biggies, right?

God: Most definitely.

John: But there has to be more.

God: More?

John: More to loving you.

God: Yes.

John: Like?

God: Spending time with me.

John: Oh. Ok. Does this count?

God: Of course.

John: You like talking with me?

God: When you love someone you like to talk with them, don't you?

John: Yes.

God: It's no different with me.

John: I guess you'd like me to do things for you?

God: It's very nice, but it's entirely up to you.

John: I like doing things for you.

God: Yes, you do.

John: Some things.

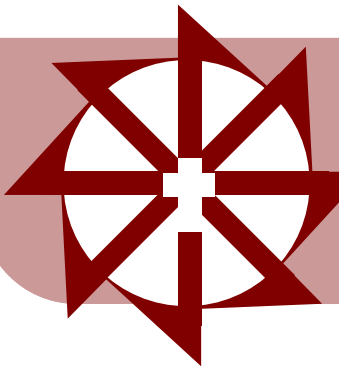

God: Yes.

John: I guess I could do more?

God: If you want to. (Pause) And John, I could do more for you too.

John: You could?

God: All you have to do is ask.
